

West Linn Trails Master Plan Adoption Process Moves Forward

Press release date: 2011-05-06

WEST LINN - After eighteen months and numerous public meetings, the Trails System Master Plan is ready for adoption.

The plan will be presented to the West Linn Planning Commission in mid-June, as the first part of the formal adoption process. Once adopted by the City Council, this 50 year vision will guide the locations, design and construction for the City's trail system and its connections.

To see which proposed trail sections will be accessible from your house, please visit the plan at westlinnoregon.gov/parksrec, maps will be available in the next week.

Any comments about the proposed plan are welcome during the Planning Commission hearings or by contacting the City's Planning Department at jsonnen@westlinnoregon.gov or 22500 Salamo Road, West Linn, OR 97068. For the exact date of the scheduled hearings please check the City website at westlinnoregon.gov.
